Huntly: A Sustainable Economy in Action
(Really?)

Donald Boyd, Development Manager

Aberdeen Climate Cafe, 8\textsuperscript{th} January 2019
It’s a team game….

- Huntly and District Development Trust
- Deveron Projects / The Town Is the Garden
- Networks of Wellbeing / The Bike Shack
- Many others…
“Working with others to build a resilient, inclusive, enterprising community capable of dealing with ongoing change.”
Local Government Finance and Demand 2009/10 - 2016/17 (% real terms)
Where we are now

Assets:
- Greenmyres farm
- Greenmyres wind turbine
- Revenue streams from Cairnborrow & Wheedlemont wind farms
- 12 E-bikes
- 4 staff (2.7 FTE), 30 volunteers, inc Board, 475 members
- Growing track record
- Total net value of wind income over next 20 years ca £7,000,000
- Total net value of wind income over next 4 years ca £350,000

Liabilities:
- Loans of £500,000+ as HDDT
- Loan of £1.5 million as GRE
- Local perception?
In the delivery of these outcomes, a number of fundamental principles exist that should be incorporated into relevant projects and actions.
Other key ingredients of a sustainable community
Further info

Huntly & District Development Trust
Brander Building
The Square, Huntly, AB54 8BR

donald.boyd@huntlydevelopmenttrust.org
www.huntlydevelopmenttrust.org

Huntly, Scotland

Scottish Land Fund

Iomhhas Fearainn Na H-Alba

Scottish Government

Natural Scotland

Local Energy Scotland